the people of Ha'wik'uh. He told them the children they left behind were now the richest in town.

When the people returned, they found that the corn and other food plants had ripened. So they felt happy, and were thankful for the service the children had done them. Desirous of rewarding the boy, it was decided he should be a priest of the Bow. Thence it is that we [that is, the A'shiwi, which is the own tribal name of the Zuñi, meaning "the flesh"] always depend on the priests, and plant every year for them. Therefore let us be deferential to the priests.

Thus shortens my story.
